June 2022

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea; though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult. Psalms 46:1 – 3

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.”

Revelation 21:5

As I sit down to write this little missive on the twenty-fourth day of May, I am once again acutely aware of time’s passage. Last Saturday was the occasion of my thirty-fourth wedding anniversary. It coincided with the day we graduated our youngest, Leith, from high school. Yesterday, Monday, May 23 we bid farewell to Laura’s mom, Jean, who succumbed to the stroke she suffered five days previous. So today, I feel a little bit caught up short... and some of that has to do with the way the rhythms of children and family, schools and schedules, work and weariness tend to keep one focused on what’s immediately in front of a person, often to the exclusion of what might be coming down the road.

Maybe you’ve heard the old maxim: “The only constant is change.” That’s true in spades when I look back at the last thirty-four years with my beloved. Since Laura and I were married, we’ve changed cities of residence eight times, and have called ten different houses “home.” In the first 15 years, we went from a family of two, to three, to four, to five, to six...with each addition bringing seismic shifts to the way we experienced life as family. And now with the kids all out of high-school (and three out of college!) we’re having to learn a new way of being.

Of the most challenging of all transitions would easily be the loss of one we love to death. As time marches ever forward, we know such losses will come, but we’re never quite ready when they do. So many things one took for granted in the seemingly ever-present reality of a parent are upended with their death. Our comfort must be found in the foundations that they laid in us and in the promises of a future in God’s hands.

Doing the hard work of grief and change brings plenty of anxiety, but it also calls one back to the constants, to the bed-rock, to the things that don’t change. After 34 years of marriage, though our lives look very different (and we look very different), the person who stood in front of the altar next to me is still standing next to me. Through all of the various changes of residence, and even through the sad good-byes, my family still has each other. In each congregation I’ve served, as unique and special as each has been, the same Lord Jesus Christ has been celebrated and served, and the same Holy Spirit has been present, and the same call has gone out to each to make the good news of life over death a present reality in this world.

We all have our own patterns of dealing with the changes that come at us, and they can run the gamut from uninterested acceptance to excited approval to anxiety or even anger. But the point is, change happens. Sometimes we are agents of it, sometimes unsuspecting victims. One question that’s always helped me through the many changes I’ve faced in my own life has been this: “I wonder what God might be up to in this?” It reminds me that though the earth should change, God is the one busy making all things new... and God’s love and care for me, for you and for the Church never wanes or falters.

But remember this one thing: Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Spearfish, South Dakota, since it was founded, has changed in just about every conceivable way over the course of the last 68 years...the buildings, the furnishings, the leadership, the liturgy, the music, the faces...even the neighborhood it serves. The one thing that stands fast is its mission and the Lord Jesus who gives it.

In an ever-changing world, in our ever-changing lives, may we always hold fast to the changeless nature of God's grace in Jesus, even as we imagine what "The God-Who-Makes-All-Things-New" might have in store for us next!

In gratitude for you, my faith family,
Pastor Stephan Sandness

Friendship Ministry
Extending the love of Christ
from Friend to Friend

Friendship Ministry involves one caring Friendship Minister confidentially coming alongside another person--making himself available to listen and support. They are present through visits, phone calls, conversations at church or at home. Relationships may only last a time or two or continue for weeks or months.

If you are looking for a friend who cares, a Friendship Minister will be there for you. Call Nancy Christopherson at 645-2723 to request a visit or for more information.

“Be still, and know that I am God!” ~ Psalm 46:10a

Dear friends,

It's time to take a deep breath! June is here, and it truly feels like Spring today as I write to you. Colors are brighter and clearer. The air, flowers, and newly-mown grass smell sweet. People are out and about walking, running, riding bikes, digging in the dirt. Parks and playgrounds are filled with the laughter of children. Our lives take on a new pace in June; and our Sunday worship does that, too, with one service at 9:00 am where we all come together.

Our summer calendars are already filling with plans and projects. Rather than thinking about June being “busy,” I invite us to consider the Bible verse above and what God tells us not to do as well as what to do. Be still can be translated as “cease striving.” Maybe this command is to knock it off—to not hold on to the illusion of control that directs our thought and our calendars and our dreams for the future. What then to do? I invite us all to take regular quiet time, standing empty before God and enjoying God's presence in what we see, hear, and feel. Eugene Peterson paraphrases this verse as, “Step out of the traffic! Take a long, loving look at me, your High God...above everything.” We get to know God—and each other—by taking a long, loving look at each other, spending time together.

People of Pine Ridge

In June we have an opportunity to get to know the people of Pine Ridge. Pastor Dan Johnson from the Pine Ridge Reconciliation Center will be with us on Sunday, June 5. And we may have an opportunity this summer to Visit the Center and meet people there. Please let me know if you are interested in that trip—it may only be open to a small group.

Summer Reading!

Get to know new folks by joining an opportunity for Summer Reading. Let me know if you are interested in reading and gathering once a month in June, July, and August to discuss what we have read. The book(s), time, and location will be determined by the group! I have some book suggestions to share with the group that forms.

God's peace and blessings to you!

WHAT: Festival in the Park
WHERE: Spearfish City Park
WHEN: July 15-17
NEED: Fruit pie makers and bakers, Booth volunteers

A sure sign of Summer is Festival in the Park. Our Savior's Lutheran Church will again have a pie booth. For somewhere around 36 years the congregation has provided these goodies for sale and then shared the proceeds with local charities and folks in need. Last year we helped feed the hungry through the Spearfish Community Food Pantry, provided Christmas gifts and food for children through the RED SHIRT PROJECT at BHSU and Lakota Omnicitye, and assisted a couple of folks battling cancer with travel funds.

I have been in contact with Kris and Scott Stewart. They will once again head up the pie making at the church on Thursday, July 14 at 8:00 am. Last year the "crew" made 81 pies by noon! All that is required is volunteer help. The "stations" are making pie dough, rolling out dough, mixing filling, adding dough and filling to pie tins, and "initialing" the pie with its kind of filling then baking. All ingredients and tins are provided just need willing hands!

I will have signup sheets for church pie making volunteers, home pie makers, and booth workers. A reminder for any new pie makers that we cannot use eggs or milk products to make pies due to the July heat and health safety concerns.

If you cannot volunteer to help by making pies or working the booth but would like to contribute we would welcome any "filling" you could donate. This could be rhubarb from the garden or frozen fruits and canned fruits from the store.

Pie Dough without eggs: 1/3 cup vegetable oil & enough water to bring to 1/2 cup liquid, 1 1/3 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Use right away or dries out.

Please add this event to your summer calendar and watch for the signup sheets.

I want to express my thanks and gratitude in advance.

"Let each one do just as he has resolved in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." ~ 2 Corinthians 9:7

SPRING CLEAN-UP 2022

On Sunday, May 15, eight volunteers representing Our Savior's headed out to east bound I-90 at exit 8 to walk the ditches for the Adopt-A-Highway program that is supported by the Department of Transportation. With yellow vests, gloves, magic wands for grabbing trash, and bright orange bags, our volunteers "cleaned the ditches" in about 1½ hours time. For additional safety, the Highway Patrol stationed an officer and patrol car in our vicinity which slowed down traffic.

This activity would not be possible without our volunteers; Julie M., Alyce S., Janet R., Lynn P., Barb G., and Del W. Fifteen bags of trash were collected along with some larger items that would not fit into our bags (car parts, wooden boards, tree limbs). Your Adopt-A-Highway organizers, Julia and George, say "Thank You Volunteers" for assisting. Next event will be held in September.

are due June 15

Esther Circle encourages anyone to check out the Baby Care Kit Display in the fellowship hall and donate a kit or one (or more) articles towards a kit. Please place items or complete kits in the basket near the receptionist desk in the Fellowship Hall.

Each kit should contain:

2 long or short-sleeved gowns or sleepers (without feet), 1 hand towel, dark color recommended, 2 receiving blankets, 2 lightweight cotton t-shirts, 4 cloth diapers, 2 pairs of socks, 2 bath-size bars of gentle soap, in original wrapping, 2 diaper pins, 1 jacket, sweater or sweatshirt with a hood or include a baby cap

Wrap items in one of the receiving blankets and secure with the safety pins. Gently used, clean items can be substituted for new ones. An entire kit gets kind of expensive, single items really help as well. Do not enclose kit in plastic bags.

Our Savior's Lutheran Church Council Minutes

After introductions, members shared information about their kids, families, homes and summer places, milestones, and more.
 - 3. Devotions: Pastor Stephan based his devotion on the vastness of time, space, sand, and stars. The earth is estimated to be four and a half billion years old. Humans have about 17 seconds worth of time on earth's timeline. Scientists' estimation of the number of grains of sand and even greater number of stars seems to be beyond comprehension. But in all the vastness of this, it is amazing that God's love and care for us is even more vast.
 - 4. Church Council Overview: Pastor Stephan outlined the purpose of the church council and the leadership roles of the members for the congregation.
 - 5. Approve Agenda: David Pummel moved to approve the agenda; Sherry Kloeckl seconded; motion carried.
 - 6. Election of Officers: Three members of the council were nominated for president of Our Savior's Lutheran Church Council; Andy Binder was elected as president.  - 11. Committee Reports: No reports were presented at this meeting.
 - 12. Council Installation: Sunday, May 15 at both worship services.
 - 13. Council Details: Pastor Stephan included information about mailboxes, offering assistance, worship and meeting attendance, leadership, and monthly treats and devotions for the new members.

CHILDREN IN WORSHIP

Welcoming children in worship is important for a variety of reasons: children are spiritual; children learn through modeling, intergenerational worship is meaningful for all ages, and more. Including children in worship allows them the opportunity to be fully engaged in the community. In a culture where age separation is prevalent, encouraging all ages to worship together is a way to reflect the Kingdom of God.

At Our Savior's Lutheran, as Jesus did, we welcome children of all ages as integral members of the body of Christ, and we welcome the sounds and activity that accompany them in worship!

Along those lines, soon you will see a new area in our sanctuary, called the 'Pray-Ground'; which is a space off to the side in the front that is intended especially for families with infants and toddlers.

We know that small children are often more engaged when they can see what is going on. Before long, little ones will start to notice the movements and rhythms of worship happening all around them. Parents are with them in the Parents Pew nearby to supervise and attend to their needs. Small tables and chairs, baby bouncers and seats, and soft toys help to keep our littlest ones occupied.

In addition to the Pray-Ground, we provide busy bags for readers & non-readers, and our nursery is available for parents to use with little ones that just need to take a break.

We modeled our Play Ground after the one at Grace Lutheran Church, Apple Valley, Minnesota. You can see pictures and learn more at:

<https://graceofav.org/prayground/>

Also, you can Google "Pray Ground" to see resources and pictures from other churches of all denominations.

Questions? Please talk with Pastor Stephan, Deacon Laura or Miss Beth.

On Sunday, May 1, our 10:45 AM worship service was filled with statements of Christian faith, as the eighth graders completed their two years of confirmation instruction.
